

One Dream on its way...

Museo Evocativo y de Bellas Artes Osvaldo Gasparini

San Antonio de Areco, Argentina

Museo Evocativo y de Bellas Artes Osvaldo Gasparini is the oldest representation in San Antonio de Areco of the traditions and culture of the Gauchos of the Pampas and all they have meant in the history of the Argentine Nation. The development of our restoration project continues through 2016 and 2017. Work at the Museum:

- Paint exhibition rooms in main house and artist's workshop
- Re-catalogue and display of art work
- Restore exhibition building La Recova; new roof and seating area
- Paint Old Chapel
- Paint Old Ranch
- Build new toilets
- Acquisition of new screen, PC, bookshelves and chairs
- Re-planting garden area and terrace

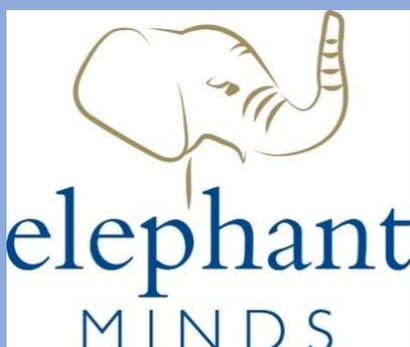

Family and friends of the Museum are working very hard to accomplish this dream. We would like to call on you to help us. Maintenance and running of the Museum is financed only by contributions from the family, friends, and visitors who donate their time and money to keep this historic building and its works of art alive and, most importantly, open free to the public. Renovation of the Museum will enable children from schools in the area to visit and gain memorable learning experiences. Museums should allow for the development of curiosity and individual talents within a creative and interactive space where exchange of ideas and memories of young and adults is possible.
